Walgreens Boots Alliance’s Board of Directors Thanks JANA Partners’ Barry Rosenstein for Board Service

Pursuant to previously signed agreement, Rosenstein has stepped down from the Walgreens Boots Alliance board

DEERFIELD, Ill.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--The board of directors of Walgreens Boots Alliance, Inc. (Nasdaq: WBA) today thanked Barry Rosenstein, managing partner of JANA Partners LLC, for his service as a director of the company (including its predecessor, Walgreen Co.) since September 2014. Pursuant to the Nomination and Support Agreement between Walgreens and JANA signed at that time, Rosenstein’s board service was scheduled to end once JANA reduced its investment in Walgreens below a certain threshold, which JANA did this week. JANA continues to hold a significant stake in Walgreens.

“We thank Barry for the new perspectives and experience he brought to the board during his tenure,” said James Skinner, chairman of the Walgreens Boots Alliance board of directors. “He played a valuable role at an important time for the company as Walgreens and Alliance Boots combined in 2014 to transform into a global company.”

Stefano Pessina, executive vice chairman and chief executive officer of Walgreens Boots Alliance, said, “I sincerely appreciate, and want to personally thank, Barry for the tremendous insight he has provided to our board to help create value for our shareholders. His talent and expertise have made a significant contribution to the success of our company and its future.”

“I could not have dreamed up a better example of the value of constructive and positive engagement between a company and its shareholders, and I am proud of the work this board has done since 2014 to put Walgreens on the path to delivering maximum value for all of its shareholders,” Rosenstein said.
